FIRST PACIFIC SHAREHOLDERS PASS ALL RESOLUTIONS AT AGM

Hong Kong, 1 June 2007 – Shareholders of First Pacific Company Limited (SEHK: 00142) today passed all resolutions by an overwhelming majority at the company's Annual General Meeting, including the reappointment of Mr. Manuel V. Pangilinan as Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer and the re-election of all other Directors whose terms had expired based on normal rotation.

Shareholders also renewed the existing general mandate for the Board to implement a share buyback and approved a general mandate for the company to issue new shares. The Board will maintain the flexibility to pursue these options if either becomes necessary and appropriate based on changing circumstances in the future.

The voting results of today's meeting is attached.

Note: Percentage voting figures shown in the attached table are calculated as percentage of total shares that were represented in votes cast today, not as a total of all voting shares on issue.
